

NATIONAL FESTIVAL TO SCREEN WORK BY BHS FILMMAKERS

Ten films by twenty-one students in the Ballard High School Digital Filmmaking Program have been named Official Selections of the All American High School Film Festival. The films were evaluated by prestigious judges such as screenwriter Diablo Cody, documentary filmmaker Morgan Spurlock, and actors Kristen Stewart and Dylan McDermott.

This is the largest high school film festival in the world; it receives entries from high school filmmakers throughout the country. The event runs October 7 - 9 in New York City at the New York Society for Ethical Culture, AMC Theatres Times Square, and the historic Kings Theater.

Here, by category, is the list of Official Selections by Ballard High School Digital Filmmaking students.
