

BALLARD PERFORMING ARTS

Ballard High School Music and Drama Departments
Seattle, Washington

The Ballard High School Music and Theatre Programs have gained regional, national, and international acclaim for their ensembles and performances. The Music Program includes over 400 students who participate in three concert bands, one concert choir, two treble choirs, two orchestras, percussion ensemble, two jazz bands, one jazz choir and multiple chamber ensembles. The Drama Program has over 90 students who partake in Theatre and Technical Theatre classes, and includes almost 200 students who participate in the three extra-curricular plays and musicals each season. We'd love to have you join us for a performance during our 2018-19 season!

The BPA faculty, together with the Ballard High School Performing Arts Booster Club (BPABC), is committed to providing a high-quality experience for all students who wish to participate in Performing Arts activities regardless of financial circumstances. Therefore, we offer scholarships to students who may need financial support or assistance.

You can help support our goals and program with donations or through our fundraisers. From purchasing coffee, chocolate or a Chinook Book from a Ballard Performing Arts student, to saving and turning in Ballard Market receipts, it all helps the program. BPA is a 501c3 organization and eligible for matching funds and tax deductions, within the limits of the law. Sponsorship opportunities are also available.
