Youth mentoring program for at-risk students - Mentors play a vital role for children who may not have the consistency of a positive role model in their lives. Students are matched with volunteer mentors whose role is to build self-esteem, improve academic skills and keep them motivated in school and in life.

Family literacy to support preschool students and families - Volunteer readers visit preschool classrooms to read aloud to students helping to create a joy for reading and learning. During the pandemic, virtual volunteers are matched with students and have access to an e-book library.

WAISN has transitioned their bilingual (Span/Eng) phone hotline to a COVID-19 response hotline. Many callers don't have access to internet or aren't able to access English-only resources. WAISN has taken on the task of creating a searchable COVID-19 database for hotline staff to be able to find the information they need quickly. We need your help to upload and research resources! 1 hour of your time could give 1000's of callers access to badly needed resources.
